In Memoriam

In memory of my brother, Oscar W. Price, Jr., on his birthday.
Today is your birthday, brother dear.
And I miss sending you a card as I have every year.
But, somehow I know you are listening from above,
As I say "Happy Birthday" with all my love.
I know you are free from sickness and pain,
And up there with Jesus you no longer need a cane.
Even though I miss you and love you still,
The grief is easy to bear because I know it was his will.
So I will go on living and do the best I can.
And when he gently calls me I can meet you in that land.
A loving sister,
Grace 7-1-1p

In memory of your birthday, June 30, Dear Leonard, a devoted husband and friend.
Your footsteps I no longer hear.
Your absence leaves a vacant chair.
But I must go on as though you were here.
For what God does is always right.
Missed by your lonely wife, Irvin C. Moses 7-1-1p
